

Summer Enrichment Programs 2011

United States Air Force Summer Seminar

This seminar is for juniors going into their senior year. Seminars are held at the Air Force Academy campus near Colorado Springs, Colorado. Subject topics include Computer Science, Astronautics, and Chemistry, to name a few. Students should apply online at www.academyadmissions.com

Session B: June 6-10

Session C: June 13-17

DEADLINE TO APPLY: February 28, 2011

Kenyon Review Young Writers Workshop:

Love to write? Apply to the Kenyon Young Writers Workshop, a two-week creative writing adventure for high school students. This workshop is located at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio. Cost of the program is $2275.00 which includes tuition, room, board, and books. More information and applications may be found online at www.kenyonreview.org

Session One: June 26-July 9

Session Two: July 17-30

DEADLINE TO APPLY: March 1, 2011

College Preparation Program at Northwestern University:

Northwestern University in Evanston, IL is offering a variety of programs for high school students. Qualified applicants must have a cumulative high school GPA of 3.0/4.0 and have completed their junior year of high school by June 13, 2011. Some consideration may be given to sophomores. Applications and additional information available at www.northwestern.edu/collegeprep
There is a cost of AT LEAST $3100.00 for this program.

DEADLINE TO APPLY: April 8, 2011

Opportunities to Learn About Business (OLAB) at Wabash:

Wabash College announces the 37th annual OLAB program for 2010. Students who are preparing to enter their senior year in high school are eligible to apply for this educational camp. This is a one-week, hands-on introduction to business and the market economy and there is NO COST...this camp is FREE! For more information and to apply go to www.wabash.edu/olab

OLAB session: July 10-16, 2011

DEADLINE TO APPLY: April 15, 2011

Loyola Pre-Collegiate Summer Scholars:

A variety of summer programs are offered in the areas of Journalism, Creative Writing, Theatrical Experience, Law and Civil Rights, and Museum Studies, to name a few. Students interested must have a 3.2/4.0 GPA and be a current sophomore or junior in high school. Call 312-915-6565 for more information or to apply, visit www.LUC.edu/summerscholars.

Seminar A: July 5-22, 2011

Seminar B: July 25-August 12, 2011

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 6, 2011

Gifted Education Resource Institute at Purdue Summer Camps:

2-two week sessions are offered in a variety of subject areas including: Game Development, Financial Mathematics, Abnormal Psychology, and Robotics. To be eligible for these summer camps, students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.5/4.0, have an IQ score of 120, and score in the 90th percentile in math and reading achievement tests. This is a residential program with tuition costs around $1750.00. For more details, visit www.purdue.edu/geni

A limited number of applications are available in Guidance.

Session 1 July 3-16

Summer Sessions at Indiana University: Indiana University will be hosting a variety of summer programs. For a tentative list of sessions, please visit www.summer.indiana.edu or call 812-855-5046.

Explore-A-College at Earlham College:

This summer program is held at Earlham College in Richmond, IN. Students will stay on campus and experience what it is like to take a college class and live like a college student. The students will also have the opportunity to earn two semester hours of transferable college credit. Some classes to choose from include: Photography, Japanese, Exploring Human Behavior, and Geology of Indiana. Approximate cost of the two-week program is $1750 which includes tuition, room, board, and two semester hours of college credit. Some additional costs will accrue. For more details visit www.earlham.edu/~eac

Session dates: July 10-July 23, 2011

DEADLINE TO APPLY: June 24, 2011

Summer Discovery Programs:

A variety of summer programs available at various locations throughout the country. A limited number of information booklets available in Guidance or more information can be obtained at www.summarydiscovery.com

The George Washington University Pre-College Program:

The George Washington University in Washington, D.C. is providing a summer opportunity for students in grades 9-11. The pre-college courses are 10-day intensive and highly-structured sessions. Examples of courses are: Biomedical Engineering, Crime and Justice, U.S. Foreign Policy, and Women's Leadership. To apply, students must be in grades 9-11, write a 350 essay, provide a transcript, and obtain a letter of recommendation. Cost of the residential program $2650. For more information and to apply, please go to www.precollege.gwu.edu

Session 1 July 10-22

Session 2 July 24- August 5

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 1, 2011

Oxbridge Academic Programs: Summer experiences available in Paris, Barcelona, Oxford, Cambridge, and Montpellier. For more information, visit www.oxbridgeprograms.com or email info@oxbridgeprograms.com

Entrepreneurship Academy at Purdue Research Park: This is a five day high tech program for incoming Indiana high school juniors and seniors. Students who demonstrate an aptitude in the areas of math, science, and technology along with an interest in entrepreneurship are eligible. Aspiring entrepreneurs will learn to identify a possible business, develop a product or service, create a marketing plan, and pitch the idea to potential investors. For more information, visit www.purdueresearchpark.com/academy.

Date: June 19-24, 2011

Washington University in St. Louis Summer Experiences for High School Students: Experience college at Washington University the summer after your sophomore or junior year! There are multiple programs that are available, you just have to find one that's right for you: High School Summer Scholars Program (5 weeks), High School Summer Institutes (3 weeks). For more information visit www.summerexperiences.wustl.edu.

IU Kelley School of Business Young Women's Institute: Any talented young women who are high school juniors and interested in studying business, this would be something you would want to apply for. If selected, students join approximately 30 women from around the country to spend a week at IU in July participating in workshops, interacting with Kelley alumni meeting current students, and exploring IU's campus while also preparing a real-world business case project. For more information, visit www.kelley.iu.edu/ugrad/precollege/ywi.cfm.

IU Kelley School of Business Junior Executive Institute: This pre-college summer program is designed for high school students from historically underrepresented groups (African-American, Latino/Hispanic, Native American/American Indian) who are interested in studying business. To be considered for the institute you must be finishing your sophomore or junior year in high school and have a GPA of 3.0 or above. The institute is funded by corporate donations and the Kelley School of Business so the only cost would be your transportation to and from Bloomington and any extra personal expense. For more information please visit:
<http://kelley.iu.edu/ugrad/precollege/jei.cfm>

Date: June 12-17, 2011 and June 19-24, 2011

Dates: July 10-15 or July 17-22

Writing in the City- Summer Pre-College Program at Barnard College (NYC): With Barnard's renowned faculty to guide you, learn how to write with Shakespeare's acuity, Virginia Woolf's intensity, and Jane Austen's brilliance in courses such as: The Art of the Essay, Documenting the Present: Crafting Memory, How to Find Your Story: Introduction to Fiction Writing, Writing about the Arts, Writing our lives: Writing Memoir and Personal Narrative, and Intro to Screenwriting. One week and four week courses available. Available to Juniors and seniors. Visit www.barnard.edu/precollege for info.

Architecture in the City- Summer Pre-College Program at Barnard College (NYC): Further your creativity and interest in design through such courses as: Architecture and Design in NYC, Architectural Design and Visual Culture Studio, Digital Design Studio, Urban Ecology and Sustainable Architecture, and NYC Design Intensive. One week and four week courses available. Available to juniors and seniors. Visit www.barnard.edu/pcp for info.

Young Women's Leadership Institute- Summer Pre-College

Program at Barnard College (NYC): Taking part in this program gives you a chance to examine the complex relationship between gender and leadership. Come to Barnard this summer to explore gender and women's studies in the Scholars' Program, learn practical skills in the Leadership Lab, and meet women in the workplace through Leaders in Action. Open to junior or senior girls. Visit www.barnard.edu/precollege for info.

Ringling College of Art and Design Pre-College Perspective:

Prepare for your future by taking part in: Creating portfolio worthy work, Work in college level coursework, Meet the challenge of project pace and performance, Live and work with like-minded individuals, Get a jump start, Earn college credits, and explore college majors. Visit www.ringling.edu/precollege for info.

2011 Emory Pre-College Program: This program gives college-bound high school students an exciting glimpse of academic and residential life at a top-ranked national university. High school students may enroll in classes with college students, earn transferable college credit, and explore topics with professors who are the leading experts in their fields. Cost for non credit course: $3305. Cost for six week course: $9046.

Credit Courses (6 weeks)

Session 2: June 27-August 5

Non-Credit Courses (2 weeks)

Session A: June 27- July 8

Session B: July 11- July 22

Session C: July 25- August 5

Purdue University Summer Minority Engineering Program-Multi-ethnic Introduction to Engineering (MITE) Academic

Boot Camp: If you are a minority student who is going into your senior year and are interested in engineering, this program will be of interest for you. This is an excellent opportunity for students to investigate career possibilities in the field of engineering while simultaneously enhancing their problem solving skills. More information is available at <https://engineering/purdue.edu/MEP/>.

Date: July 5- August 4

DEADLINE TO APPLY: April 15, 2011

Indiana State University-Summer Honors Program:

ISU is offering two, one week long camps which provide students the opportunity to live on campus, earn one college credit and study a subject of their choice under the guidance of an ISU faculty member. To qualify for the program, students must have completed their freshman, sophomore, or junior year by June 2011, maintained at least a "B" average and be recommended by their teacher, counselor, or principal. All students who successfully complete the ISU Honors program with a "B" average or better and graduate high school with at least a "B" average will be awarded a $1,000 scholarship to attend ISU. More information is available at <https://indstate.edu/experience>

Date: July 17-23, July 24-30, 2011

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 20, 2011

3rd annual Entrepreneurship Business Camp at Anderson

University: Anderson University Entrepreneurship Business Camp is open to all students who will be high school juniors, seniors and first year graduates when the next school year begins. The camp engages high school students with hands-on entrepreneurship projects while giving the attendees the opportunity to win money with their ideas. Cost is $59 all-inclusive and the deposit is due with the application. Applications are available in the guidance department. More information is available at <https://www.EntrepreneurshipCamp.com>

Date: June 19-21, 2011

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 31, 2011

Indiana University Bloomington-School of Informatics and Computing (SoIC) Summer Camp:

This camp is geared toward students in the 9th-12th grades who are interested in learning the latest trends in technology, the Internet, Web design, networking, gaming and more. This camp also helps students explore potential career paths in technology allowing hands-on experience creating their own tech-related project. The cost of the camp is $400 and includes an overnight stay in a residence hall, meals, classes and activities. Full and partial "camperships" are available to qualified applicants to cover the fees. Applications require a 100-word essay describing your interest in the Informatics and Computing Summer Camp. Applications are available in the guidance department or register on-line at: <https://www.soic.indiana.edu/community/summer-camp/index.shtml>

Date: June 19-23, 2011

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 15, 2011

The Indiana Academy for Science, Mathematics and

Humanities Summer Adventure: This is a residential camp that takes place on the Ball State University campus. Experience hands-on learning with expert instructors and meet peers with similar interests. This camp is geared toward students in grades 8-10. The topic is Adventures in Biomedicine. For more information visit <https://bsu.edu/academcy/summercamps>

Date: July 10-15, 2011

University of Michigan School of Art and Design Summer Art

Design Opportunities 2011: The University of Michigan is offering several sessions for high school students in grades 9-11. All sessions take place on the campus of U of M in Ann Arbor, MI. Each session is a residential program that allows students to explore art and design through hands-on experiences with other peers with similar interests. For more information please visit <http://art-design.umich.edu>

Session 1 (Innovation & Invention): June 26-July 2, 2011

Session 2 (BFA Prep): July 10-July 23, 2011

Session 3 (Portfolio Prep): July 24-July 30, 2011

The University of Chicago Summer Session Programs:

During Summer Session students may take undergraduate courses for college credit. Students are taught in small class settings with experienced professors and can select courses from more than 150 offerings. Summer Session is able to offer a number of need-based, partial scholarships to students on a first come, first serve basis. If you have any questions please call (773) 834-3792 or e-mail summerhs@uchicago.edu. For more information please visit: www.summer.uchicago.edu/language

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 2, 2011

Augustana Summer Academy:

Experience a unique college atmosphere and summer adventure by taking a course in the Augustana Summer Academy. The academy's courses range from one to five days and take an active, hands-on approach within a close-knit learning community based on the beautiful Augustana campus. This program is for high school students entering their sophomore, junior or senior year. All students who participate in at least one Augustana Summer Academy course and apply and are accepted into Augustana College (to earn a BA degree), will receive a $500 scholarship for each year enrolled at Augustana College (up to $2000). For more information please visit: www.augustana.edu/summer.academy

Date: June 20-24, 2011

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 31, 2011

College of Architecture and Planning Summer Workshop at Ball State University:

This workshop is intended for top high school sophomores and juniors with a focus on the exciting world of environmental design and planning through hands-on activities, field trips and other events. For more information or to apply on-line please visit: www.bsu.edu/cap/workshop.

Date: July 10-22, 2011

DEADLINE TO APPLY: June 24, 2011

Stanford High School Summer College:

Stanford's High School Summer College provides academic, social, and intellectual opportunities that cannot be found in a high school classroom. All program participants build their own schedule of challenging college level courses that will be documented on an official Stanford University transcript. Credit earned may be transferable to other colleges and universities in later years. This program is for current high school junior and seniors. For more information please visit www.summer.stanford.edu

Date: June 18-August 14, 2011

DEADLINE TO APPLY: May 23, 2011